OFFICERS

JERRY REINSORF

Chairman

Since heading the limited partnership that purchased the White Sox in January 1981, Jerry Reinsdorf has been increasingly active in the affairs of baseball. He currently is serving a third four-year term on Major League Baseball's prestigious Executive Council. Reinsdorf also served a four-year term as chairman of baseball's Ownership Committee and was a member of the board of directors of the Player Relations Committee, Inc. for seven years. He remains a member of the Ownership Committee, as well as the Equal Opportunity, Expansion, Negotiating, Labor Policy and Strategic Planning committees. He also was a member of the American League Presidential Search Committee, which named Gene Budig in June 1994.

During Reinsdorf's 15 seasons as chairman of the White Sox, the club has captured American League division titles twice, in 1983 and again in 1993. Since 1990, the White Sox have posted a 496-409 (.548) record, the best mark in the American League and the second-best record in the majors behind 1995 World Series Champion Atlanta (519-387, .573).

Reinsdorf expanded his involvement in the professional sports world in February 1985 by purchasing controlling interest in the Chicago Bulls of the National Basketball Association. During his tenure as chairman of the Bulls, the team has brought three consecutive World Championships to Chicago (1991-93). In addition to initiating the building of new Comiskey Park, Reinsdorf spearheaded construction of two major facilities for the Bulls. The United Center, new home for the Bulls and Chicago Blackhawks, opened for the 1994-95 season, and the Bulls began using the Berto Center, their state-of-the-art training facility, in 1992.

In December 1987, Reinsdorf completed employment as chairman of the board of a real estate investment firm he co-founded in the early 1970s. Currently, he is a partner in Bojer Financial, Ltd., a land investment company.

Reinsdorf's many contributions to the community have been recognized by such organizations as the Interfaith Organizing Project, the American Academy of Achievement, the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, the Trial Lawyers Club of Chicago, the Chicago Jewish Sporting Hall of Fame and the National Jewish Sporting Hall of Fame. In addition, he is the recipient of the Chicago Park District's 1990 Chicagoan of the Year Award, the 1992 PUSH Bridgebuilder Award, the National Italian-American Friendship Award, Northwestern University's Award of Merit and the U.S. Air Force American Spirit Award. Reinsdorf was awarded the Ellis Island Medal of Honor in 1993 for contributing to national identity while preserving the distinct values and heritage of our ancestors. As chairman of the Chicago White Sox, he was instrumental in initiating Chicago White Sox Charities, the arm of the baseball organization that raises funds for cancer research, children's and senior programs. Chicago Baseball Cancer Charities has conferred its Hallmark Award to Reinsdorf in recognition of his efforts.

In addition to his sports interests, Reinsdorf is an attorney, a certified public accountant, a specialist in real estate securities, a registered mortgage underwriter and a certified review appraiser. He is a former member of the board of directors of Shearson Lehman Brothers, Inc. and the Northwestern University Law School Alumni Association, and is presently a trustee of Northwestern University and the Illinois Institute of Technology. He also has served on the boards of numerous other corporations and charities.

Born in Brooklyn, New York on February 25, 1936, Reinsdorf graduated from George Washington University in Washington, D.C. and earned a law degree from Northwestern University. Reinsdorf and his wife, Martyl, have four children: David, Susan, Michael and Jonathan and four grandchildren: Bryan, Melissa, Max and Jennifer.

EDDIE EINHORN

Vice Chairman

Eddie Einhorn begins his sixth year as vice chairman of the White Sox, continuing his involvement with chairman Jerry Reinsdorf while also devoting time to his sports and television interests. Prior to becoming vice chairman, Einhorn was the club's president and chief operating officer for 10 years.

Einhorn is a member of Major League Baseball's Schedule Format Committee, the Professional Baseball Association Committee and was a member of the Television Committee from 1992-95. He was one of the key architects of The Baseball Network, Major League Baseball's joint broadcasting venture. In 1989, Einhorn was appointed television consultant to the United States Olympic Committee and was responsible for a 200-hour Olympic television package that debuted in 1990. He is currently television consultant for the United States Figure Skating Association and the International Skating Union, the governing bodies for figure skating throughout the world. Einhorn also serves on the board of directors of the Chicago Bulls.

Recognized as the architect of baseball's first billion dollar-plus television contract, Einhorn was instrumental in negotiating the 1990 deal with CBS-TV and ESPN. Einhorn is also the senior American League representative on the Player Development Negotiating Committee.

Prior to joining law school classmate Jerry Reinsdorf in 1981 to head the limited partnership to purchase the White Sox, Einhorn was the executive producer of the "CBS Sports Spectacular." At CBS, he was responsible for over 200 hours of programming per year and won an Emmy Award for "The Gossamer Albatross, Flight of Imagination" in 1980. Einhorn was the founder and chairman of TVS Television Network, the leading syndicator of sports programming in the 1970s, which helped give rise to the popularity of college basketball on television.

Einhorn was born on January 3, 1936 in Paterson, New Jersey and holds a bachelor's degree from the University of Pennsylvania. He is a graduate of the Northwestern University School of Law. Einhorn and his wife, Ann, have two children: Jennifer (1/2/72) and Jeffrey (9/26/74).

Special Thanks

The Chicago White Sox Public Relations Department would like to thank Daniel Evans, Kim Ng, Nancy Nesnidal, Grace Guerrero Zwit and Dan Fabian of baseball operations, as well as Steve Noworyta, Sal Artiaga and Judi Miller of player development, for providing information used in the 1996 Chicago White Sox Media Guide.

HOWARD PIZER

Executive Vice President

Howard Pizer has primary responsibility for White Sox business and administrative operations, as well as the club's legal matters. The longtime business associate of Jerry Reinsdorf joined the White Sox in 1981 to handle the club's transition from former owner Bill Veeck to the Reinsdorf-Einhorn group.

Prior to its opening on April 18, 1991, Pizer's primary focus was on the necessary steps to create the new Comiskey Park. He utilizes this experience in connection with the development and operation of the United Center, the state-of-the-art facility which opened for the 1994-95 Chicago Bulls and Chicago Blackhawks seasons.

Pizer sets organization-wide administrative policies and procedures, established uniformity in corporate-wide computerization and was instrumental in initiating an employee relations program. He also is responsible for the overall relationship between Illinois Sportservice, the White Sox concessionaire, and Levy Restaurants in conjunction with the operation of The Stadium Club and Diamond Suites.

Pizer lends his organizational ability to the boards of directors of Chicago Baseball Cancer Charities and Special Children's Charities, the fundraising arm of Chicago Special Olympics. He is a member of the board of the Near West Side Development Corp., which is working to spur affordable housing and economic development on Chicago's near west side. Pizer also serves as vice president and secretary for Chicago White Sox Charities.

Born on October 23, 1941 in Chicago, Illinois, Pizer is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin. He is also a magna cum laude graduate of the Northwestern University School of Law. Pizer and his wife, Sheila, have two children: Jacqueline (4/5/68) and Rachel (4/28/71).

RON SCHUELER

Senior Vice President, Major League Operations

Ron Schueler begins his sixth season as White Sox senior vice president of major league operations, making him the fourth ranking American League general manager in terms of tenure. He was named to his position on November 5, 1990, and the Sox have gone 402-341 (.541) during his five seasons. Schueler and Cleveland's John Hart (.545) own the winningest career records for current major-league baseball general managers who have remained with one franchise.

Schueler brings 16 years of off-field baseball experience and an additional 13 years of playing service to the White Sox. In the four years prior to joining the Sox, Schueler served as special assistant to Oakland's Sandy Alderson, where he was responsible for evaluating both professional and amateur baseball talent.

In 1995, the White Sox had nine pitchers make their major-league debuts and featured one of the youngest pitching staffs in the league. A former major-league pitcher, Schueler added young pitchers like Matt Karchner, Larry Thomas and Bill Simas to a staff that had led the AL in ERA in 1993-94. During his tenure, Schueler also has been responsible for acquiring veterans Jim Abbott (1995), Harold Baines (1996-present), Ellis Burks (1993), Mike Devereaux (1995), Julio Franco (1994), Charlie Hough

During Schueler's first season, the White Sox drew nearly 3 million fans to brand-new Comiskey Park as the club recorded its second successive runner-up finish in the AL West with an 87-75 mark. Under new manager Gene Lamont, the Sox went 86-76 in 1992 to finish third. In 1993, the Sox captured their first division title since 1983 with a 94-68 mark. After recording the best winning percentage in the AL Central in 1994 (67-46, .593), the Sox dropped to 68-76 in 1995, but finished 57-56 after Schueler named Terry Bevington manager on June 2.

Schueler compiled a 40-48 record over eight major-league seasons with Atlanta (1972-73), Philadelphia (1974-76), Minnesota (1977) and the White Sox (1978-79). The 6-4 right-hander originally was selected by Atlanta in the third round (secondary phase) of the January 1967 free agent draft.

His playing career ended in June 1979 when he was hired by Sox manager Don Kessinger as the club's pitching coach. Schueler served as the team's pitching coach until 1981 before joining Oakland in the same capacity from 1982-84. He held the same duties for the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1986 before joining the A's front office where he received a World Series ring with Oakland in 1989.

Schueler was born on April 18, 1948 in Hays, Kansas. A graduate of Hays High School, he attended Fort Hays State College prior to being drafted. Schueler has two children: Kacey (7/21/73), who plays basketball at the University of Illinois-Chicago, and Carey (4/25/75), who plays basketball at St. Mary's College in Moraga, Calif.

ROB GALLAS

Senior Vice President, Marketing & Broadcasting

Rob Gallas joined the White Sox in September 1989 at a pivotal point in the club's 80-year history. He was given the dual challenge of closing old Comiskey Park while generating excitement for the club's new home across the street. Over the past seven seasons, Gallas and the Sox marketing department have consistently focused on fan-oriented programs that guarantee a fun baseball experience throughout the ballpark. In 1996, those efforts will include Wacky Weeknights with events such as "Romance Night" and "Used Car Night." The Sox also will provide fans with unique access to club information by opening a site on the Internet during the 1996 season.

From the nostalgic "Turn Back the Clock" promotion and historic montage display of the 80-year Comiskey Park history during the final 1990 season, to creating a Hall of Fame and offering tributes to women in baseball and members of the former Negro Leagues, Sox marketing efforts have focused on reminding old and new fans of the treasures of baseball. The White Sox revived their "Turn Back the Clock" promotion in 1995, drawing 42,491 fans (the fourth-largest crowd in new Comiskey Park's history) to the July 5 game against New York.

The White Sox logo and uniforms, unveiled at the end of the 1990 season, have moved the Sox to the top of Major League Baseball in merchandise sales in each of the last five years. At the same time, a strong effort is being made to keep fans in touch with players through events like SoxFest and White Sox Day at Taste of Chicago, while "giving back" to the Chicago metropolitan area through Chicago White Sox Charities and the Sox community relations efforts.

Since Gallas joined the White Sox, the club has broken all-time attendance records with five of the franchise's best seven season marks coming since 1990. In recognition of the marketing department's effort, Gallas was one of only three sports executives selected in 1992 by Advertising Age magazine for its first "Marketing 100" list, which honored programs that "stand for the very best in brand building."

Gallas began his career as a news and sportswriter with newspapers in the Midwest, including a stint from 1976 to 1983 as the White Sox beat writer for the Chicago suburban Daily Herald newspaper chain. He received the Jacob Scher award for investigative reporting in 1975 and in 1980 captured UPI's Illinois Newspapers Best Sportswriting Award. Before joining the White Sox, he held the position of group manager of marketing communications and services for a division of Baxter Healthcare Corporation.

Gallas was born in Chicago, Illinois on January 4, 1951 and grew up in Michigan City, Indiana. A 1973 graduate of the University of Evansville (Indiana), Gallas and his wife, Sharon, have two children: Christopher (3/8/71), who is director of marketing and media relations for the Class A Hickory Crawdads, and Jennifer (2/4/74), a student at Indiana University. The Gallas family resides in Palatine, Illinois.

JACK GOULD

Senior Vice President, Baseball

Jack Gould joined the White Sox as an investor in 1975 during Bill Veeck's second tenure with the club. He assumed his current role as senior vice president of baseball in 1981 with the Reinsdorf-Einhorn ownership group. Gould is one of four original members of the Sox board of directors remaining on the board.

Under Gould's direction, the White Sox began computerizing the gathering of statistical data during the 1981 season, bringing the club into the forefront of the industry by making baseball decisions based on computer-generated data. He also has overseen the research involved in preparing for potential arbitration cases.

As a bomber pilot for the U.S. Army Air Force during World War II, Gould flew on 35 combat missions in Europe and received several decorations, including the distinguished Flying Cross. Lt. Col. and actor Jimmy Stewart was second in command of Gould's wing. After leaving the military, Gould ran his own mortgage banking firm for 25 years. He is an advocate of youth baseball and served in various administrative capacities for Colt League Baseball in the northern suburbs of Chicago, including coaching duties.

Gould was born in Chicago, Illinois and is a graduate of Chicago's Von Steuben High School and the University of Illinois, where he received a bachelor's degree in accounting. He and his wife, Nancy, have one child: Larry (7/24/57).

TIM BUZARD

Vice President, Finance

As vice president of finance for the White Sox, Tim Buzard is directly responsible for the club's accounting, ticket office, human resources and data processing departments. After assuming this position in 1985, he initiated new cash management and comprehensive risk management systems, which reduced risk exposures and costs for the franchise.

Buzard spent much of the 1993 season as a member of Major League Baseball's Chief Financial Officers' Committee studying revenue sharing. He has overseen a ticket office customer service campaign and a new human resources department with the White Sox, including the implementation of a flexible benefits and 401(k) program.

Prior to his promotion to vice president of finance, Buzard served as controller for five years. Upon his arrival in 1981, his top priority was developing a detailed budget and long-term accounting plan. He initiated the automation of the accounting department and assisted in an organization-wide computerization project.

Buzard holds an accounting degree from the University of Illinois and became a certified public accountant in 1981. He served as a senior accountant for Ernst & Whinney for three years prior to joining the Sox.

Buzard was born on September 13, 1955 in Evanston, Illinois. A 1978 graduate of the University of Illinois, Buzard and his wife, Sandra, have two children; Jacqueline (11/11/84) and Kevin (3/21/89). The Buzard family resides in Highland Park, Illinois.

TERRY SAVARISE

Vice President, Stadium Operations

As vice president of stadium operations, Terry Savarise is directly responsible for all aspects of the operation of the ballpark, including the over 2,000 employees that staff Comiskey Park on game days. He also was responsible for the planning and construction of new Comiskey Park. Savarise handled the layout and design of all aspects of the ballpark, including the state-of-the-art features in the Diamond Suites, The Stadium Club, press box and clubhouses.

Entering his 15th season with the White Sox, Savarise also serves as senior vice president of operations for the United Center, the arena that serves as the home of the Chicago Bulls and Chicago Blackhawks. Savarise handled all design and construction aspects of the state-of-the-art multipurpose arena. Savarise also worked closely with the city of Sarasota, Florida in the design and construction of Ed Smith Stadium and Sports Complex, which opened as the club's spring training and minor-league headquarters in February 1989. In addition, he provided assistance in the development of the new L.P. Frans Stadium, home of the White Sox Class A affiliate in Hickory, North Carolina.

Prior to joining the White Sox, Savarise served an internship with the Cleveland Cavaliers of the National Basketball Association in their All-Star Game season of 1980-81. He is an active member of the Arena Managers' Association and the International Association of Auditorium Managers and serves on the board of directors of the Stadium Managers' Association.

Savarise was born on November 20, 1959 and was raised in Ashtabula, Ohio. He is a 1981 graduate of Ohio University with bachelor's degrees in accounting and business law, followed by a master's degree in sports administration later that year. Savarise and his wife, Tara, have two children: Katie (9/10/88) and Jonathan (7/8/93).

LARRY MONROE

*Vice President, Free Agent
& Major League Scouting*

Larry Monroe, vice president of scouting and minor league operations since November 1990, acquired new duties as vice president of free agent and major league scouting on October 10, 1994. A former right-handed pitcher for the Chicago White Sox, Monroe brings 21 years of experience in the White Sox organization as a player, scout, minor-league instructor and coach. He served as both a special assistant to the general manager and major-league scout before taking over vice president duties.

Monroe enhances the club's scouting efforts during the season and his experience allows him to assist Ron Schueler, senior vice president of major league operations, in evaluating potential player moves.

A graduate of Forest View High School in Arlington Heights, Illinois, Monroe received all-conference baseball honors three times and all-area baseball honors twice. He was the White Sox No. 1 selection in the June 1974 free agent draft and made his major-league debut with the White Sox on August 23, 1976 in Detroit, where he pitched two scoreless, hitless innings.

Monroe was born on June 20, 1956 in Detroit, Michigan. He has three children: Taylor (10/14/83), Allison (3/13/85) and Grant (9/29/88).

Fielder Jones (67-47 in 1904) and Ted Lyons (64-60 in 1946) are the only others to accomplish the feat ... the team's .504 winning percentage was the seventh-best in the American League after 6/2 ... the Sox were 40-38 after the All-Star Break and went 18-12 in September/October ... the club won eight straight from 8/30-9/6, the longest winning streak by a Sox team since 1991 ... agreed to a multiyear contract on 10/1 ... is the youngest current major-league manager but only the 12th-youngest in White Sox history ... is the second manager in franchise history with no major-league playing experience ... the first was Clarence "Pants" Rowland, who led the White Sox to their last World Series Championship in 1917 ... is the first Sox coach since Don Gutteridge to be promoted to manager ... Gutteridge replaced Al Lopez in 1969 ... was ejected four times in 1995 (6/17 at California by John Shulock; 6/21 vs. Seattle by Tim McClelland; 7/23 vs. Milwaukee by Larry Young; and 8/14 vs. California by Ken Kaiser) ... was suspended for four games by AL President Gene Budig as a result of his 7/23 ejection ... served the suspension from 8/1-4 ... started 1995 as the club's third base coach, his sixth season in that capacity and seventh overall with the White Sox ... was ejected three times in his career as a coach (4/29/89 at New York; 10/4/91 at Seattle; and 9/6/92 at Kansas City) ... has a .549 (668-548) combined career winning percentage in the major and minor leagues, third among AL managers behind Baltimore's Davey Johnson (.576, 952-701) and Boston's Kevin Kennedy (.571, 757-569).

Minor League Managerial/Coaching Career: Began his minor-league managerial career in 1981 at age 24 ... managed 1,103 minor-league games ... of the 14 current AL managers, no one managed more minor-league games, and of the 28 current major-league managers, only five managed more contests in the minors (Montreal's Felipe Alou, 1,635; Houston's Terry Collins, 1,560; Pittsburgh's Jim Leyland, 1,402; Chicago's Jim Riggleman, 1,112; and Florida's Rene Lachemann, 1,105) ... won division titles in five of his eight seasons as a minor-league manager and compiled a 611-492 (.554) career mark ... reached the playoffs in each of his last four seasons as a manager (1985-88) ... managed the White Sox Class AAA Vancouver affiliate to the Pacific Coast League Northern Division title in both halves of 1988, his last season managing before he joined the Sox coaching staff in 1989 as first base coach ... Sox catcher Ron Karkovice played for Bevington at Vancouver, and White Sox first base coach Ron Jackson was a member of the coaching staff ... managed in the Milwaukee Brewers organization for seven years before joining the White Sox in 1988 ... among the players he managed were Chris Bosio, Ted Higuera, Charlie O'Brien, Dan Plesac, B.J. Surhoff, Dale Sveum and Bill Wegman ... managed Class AAA Denver of the American Association and claimed a divisional title in 1987 ... took Vancouver to first-place finishes in both halves in 1986 ... was named Texas League Manager of the Year at Class AA El Paso in 1985 ... won the first half of the California League race at Class A Stockton in 1983 ... began his managerial career at Class A Burlington of the Midwest League in 1981.

Playing Career: Began professional playing career as a catcher in the New York Yankees organization in 1974 ... was selected in the fourth round of the June 1974 free agent draft ... named to New York-Penn League All-Star Team in his second professional season (1975) ... was released by New York on 7/5/77 and signed with Milwaukee as a free agent on 2/7/78 ... played for three years in the Brewers organization and retired following the 1980 season ... was a .247 (265-1,074) hitter with 16 home runs in 368 career games.

Miscellaneous/Personal: Married Cyndi Lochard ... has one child: Courtney Taylor (3/4/93) ... older brother Zach was a longtime minor-league umpire and called games managed by Bevington ... attended Santa Monica (Calif.) High School and Santa Monica City College ... lists Johnny Neun, a former Yankees manager and coach, and Dee Fondy and Cal McLish, longtime members of the Brewers organization, as influences in his career.

Best Records Since 1990

Since 1990, the White Sox have posted a 496-409 (.548) record, the best record in the American League and the second-best mark in the major leagues. Only Atlanta (519-387, .573) has a better overall record during that time. The Sox have the best home mark (262-187, .584) since 1990 and are one of just three teams to have a winning record on the road. The top five teams overall, at home and on the road since 1990:

batted .340 (64-188) with men on base, a career high and fifth-best mark in the AL ... became only the fourth Orioles designated hitter to reach 20 home runs ... tied a Baltimore record by reaching base 13 consecutive times from 4/30-5/2 (eight hits and five walks) ... went on the disabled list on 5/5 with a pulled rib cage muscle ... played in three games with the Bowie Baysox on a rehabilitation stint and returned on 5/27 ... collected career hit No. 2,000 on 7/24 with an infield single off Minnesota's Scott Erickson ... laid down a sacrifice bunt on 9/8 vs. Seattle, his first in the regular season since 1984 (he did have one in the 1990 and 1992 ALCS while with Oakland). 1992: Led Oakland in the postseason with a .440 (11-25) average ... his 11 hits tied an ALCS record that has since been broken by Devon White and Tim Lincecum ... his ninth-inning solo home run in Game 1 at Toronto (off Jack Morris) gave Oakland a 4-3 win ... made 19 starts in the outfield with Oakland ... was second on the A's in games (140), RBI (76), total bases (187) and was third in home runs (16) ... was hitting .221 with two home runs and 14 RBI in 45 games as of 6/1, but hit .269 with 14 homers and 62 RBI over the last 95 games ... matched a career high with seven RBI on 6/23 vs. Seattle ... recorded his 1,000th RBI on 5/18 at Baltimore. 1991: Homered three times vs. Baltimore on 5/7 (off Ben McDonald, Dave Johnson and Jeff Robinson) ... also doubled and walked in his five plate appearances ... drove in seven, scored four times and set an Oakland record with 14 total bases ... received a club-record 22 intentional walks ... his .322 road average was sixth in the AL and his .455 pinch-hitting average was third in the league (minimum: 10 at-bats) ... recorded his last outfield assist. 1990: Was acquired by Oakland just before the playoff deadline ... was re-united with manager Tony La Russa for the fourth time (Knoxville in 1978, Iowa in 1979, White Sox in 1980-86) ... his five postseason RBI were a team high ... batted .357 (5-14) with three RBI as the A's swept Boston in four games ... did not start a game all season against a left-hander until Game 3 of the World Series ... in his first at-bat homered off Cincinnati's Tom Browning. 1989: His .309 combined average with the Sox and Texas ranked as the eighth best in the AL and was second among left-handers behind Wade Boggs (.330) ... was seventh in on-base percentage (.395) and 10th in slugging (.465) ... was traded to Texas on 7/29 ... was named to The Sporting News All-Star and Silver Slugger teams as the designated hitter ... started the All-Star Game and his RBI single off Rick Sutcliffe was the first hit by a designated hitter in an All-Star Game. 1988: Led all designated hitters with 160 hits and 76 RBI and was named the league's top designated hitter for the second successive season ... tied for sixth in the AL in doubles (39) and led the team in games (158), hits (166), total bases (246) and RBI (81). 1987: Posted career highs of 10 home runs and 36 RBI in June ... was named to the AL All-Star Team for the third consecutive season despite missing 23 games early due to a knee injury ... was selected as the league's top designated hitter ... hit safely in 18 straight games from 7/3-24 ... became the Sox all-time home run hitter (since relinquished) with career No. 155 off Baltimore's Mike Boddicker at Comiskey Park. 1986: Became the first Sox player to reach 20 home runs in five consecutive seasons ... hit six ninth-inning homers, tying for the lead in the majors ... led the Sox in hits (169), runs (72), homers (21) and RBI (88) ... ranked fourth in the AL with 15 assists in his last full season in the outfield. 1985: Led the AL with a .335 road batting mark ... his 158 starts led all league right fielders ... batted over .300 with 20 or more home runs for the second straight season ... only New York's Don Mattingly matched that production in 1984-85 ... was named to The Sporting News and UPI All-Star teams ... missed getting 200 hits when he went 0-13 in the final series against Seattle ... had nine home runs as of 8/22 but finished with 22 ... posted a .994 fielding percentage, third best in the AL ... had a pinch-hit single off Nolan Ryan in his first All-Star Game appearance. 1984: Led the AL in slugging percentage (.541) ... in 70 games from the end of May through mid-August, batted .379 with 19 home runs, 59 RBI and a .783 slugging percentage ... had 308 total bases ... home run on 5/9 off Milwaukee's Chuck Porter in the 25th inning ended the longest game in major-league history (8:06) ... he hit the 753rd pitch of the game ... the bat used to hit the home run is in The Baseball Hall of Fame ... shares three major-league records as a result of the game: most plate appearances (12); longest errorless game by an outfielder (25 innings); and most innings by an outfielder (25) ... homered three times on 9/17 at Minnesota. 1983: Set a then major-league record for most game-winning RBI (22) ... his sacrifice fly on 9/17 at Comiskey Park drove home Julio Cruz to beat Seattle and give the Sox the AL West Division title, the franchise's first since 1959

Sox Switch-Hit Home Runs

Tim Raines became just the second player in club history to homer from both sides of the plate in the same game when he connected twice against the New York Yankees on August 31, 1993 at New York. Raines homered in the fifth inning off left-hander Sterling Hitchcock and in the ninth off right-hander Rich Monteleone. Outfielder Ken Henderson was the first player in Sox history to homer from both sides of the plate on August 29, 1975 at Baltimore. Henderson connected off left-hander Ross Grimsley and right-hander Wayne Garland.

Home Run Derby

The White Sox set a franchise record when they hit seven home runs in a 29-6 victory at Kansas City on April 23, 1955. In addition to the club home run mark, the 29 Sox runs are an American League record, and the two teams combined to hit nine home runs, two off the league record. The seven Sox homers:

Consecutive Grand Slams

In 1984, Greg Luzinski hit grand slams in consecutive games against Minnesota. He connected in the first inning off Frank Viola on June 8, and again off Mike Walters in the seventh inning on June 9.

Most Home Runs To Start A Game

On September 3, 1937, Boze Berger and Mike Kreevich hit the only back-to-back home runs to start a game in White Sox history. The homers came off Boston's Johnny Marcum.

Frank Thomas Over Five Seasons

In 1995, Frank Thomas became the only player in major-league history to bat .300 or better with at least 20 home runs, 100 RBI, 100 walks and 100 runs scored over five consecutive years. In 1994, Thomas joined Lou Gehrig (1929-32, 1934-37) and Ted Williams (1946-49) as the only players to reach those totals over four successive seasons (Note: Williams accomplished the feat from 1941-42 and 1946-49, missing 1943-45 due to World War II). Thomas is the first player to reach those levels in his first five full years. His performances over the five years:

1995 Accomplishments

◆ Finished in the Top 10 in seven of the 12 major offensive categories; walks (1st, 136), home runs (2nd, 40), on-base percentage (2nd, .454), slugging percentage (3rd, .606), total bases (6th, 299), RBI (5th, 111) and runs scored (9th, 102).

G	AB	R	H	TB	2B	3B	HR	RBI	BB	SO	AVG	SLG	OBP
162	572	140	194	398	43	1	53	138	167	86	.339	.696	.487

His 167 walks would have been second on baseball's all-time list, while his 53 home runs would have been 11th and his 97 extra-base hits 15th.

◆ Received 29 intentional walks, tying the American League record for a right-handed hitter set by Washington's Frank Howard in 1970 ... San Francisco's Kevin Mitchell (32 in 1989) holds the major-league record for intentional walks issued to a right-hander.

◆ Led the major leagues with 136 walks and reached the 100-walk plateau in fewer games (96) than any player in White Sox history.

◆ Hit 13 home runs in 30 games from 6/13-7/15, the second-best stretch of his career ... Thomas homered 14 times in a 30-game stretch from 5/21-6/21/94.

◆ Hit 10 home runs in June, the fourth time in his career he has reached double figures in a month ... his 10 homers were the most by a Sox player in June since Bill Melton hit 10 in 1971.

◆ Hit two home runs in a game three times this season and 12 times in his career (last on 9/13 at California).

◆ 67 of his 152 hits (44.1 percent) went for extra bases, the seventh-best ratio in club history.

◆ Reached base safely in 136 of 145 games (93.8 percent).

#Hall of Famer

◆ Home run on 5/20 vs. California was estimated at 461 feet, the third-longest in new Comiskey Park history (behind Dan Pasqua's 484-foot blast in 1991 and his own 466-foot homer on 5/16/92).

All-Star Facts

◆ Made third consecutive All-Star Game appearance and his second straight start at first base for the American League on 7/11 at The Ballpark in Arlington ... became first Sox player to start consecutive games since Carlton Fisk (1981-82).

◆ Became the first Sox player to earn three straight trips to the All-Star Game since Jack McDowell (1991-93), and the first Sox position player on three consecutive teams since Harold Baines (1985-87).

◆ Became the first White Sox player to homer in an All-Star Game when he connected on a fourth-inning, 418-foot shot off Cincinnati's John Smiley into the left field mezzanine ... he donated his bat to the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum, where it is on display.

◆ Was 16-49 (.327) with seven home runs and 11 RBI vs. pitchers named to the American League All-Star Team in 1995 and is 71-225 (.316) with 16 home runs and 41 RBI against those pitchers in his career.

◆ Won the Home Run Derby on 7/10, defeating Cleveland's Albert Belle in the finals ... his 15 home runs in the competition traveled a combined 6,488 feet, an average of nearly 433 feet per homer ... hit seven of the eight longest home runs, including a 470-foot shot to center field.

Historical Accomplishments

- ◆ Despite the abbreviated 1995 schedule, Thomas became the first player in major-league history to hit .300 with 20 home runs, 100 RBI, 100 walks and 100 runs scored in five straight years ... Thomas hit .308 with 40 home runs, 111 RBI, 102 runs scored and 136 walks ... Ted Williams (1946-49) and Lou Gehrig (1929-32, 1934-37) each accomplished the feat four times ... (Note: Williams accomplished the feat from 1941-42 and 1946-49, missing 1943-45 due to World War II.)
- ◆ Became the first player in history to collect 100 walks and 100 RBI five consecutive years ... Lou Gehrig (1929-32, 34-38), Babe Ruth (1930-33), Ted Williams (1946-49) and Ralph Kiner (1948-51) each reached those figures four straight years ... Williams drew 100 walks and drove in 100 runs in six consecutive seasons (1941-42, 46-49) but did not play from 1943-45 due to World War II.
- ◆ Drew his 100th walk of the season on 8/11 vs. Oakland, becoming only the second player in major-league history to record at least 100 walks in each of his first five full seasons ... Roy Thomas (Philadelphia-NL, 1899-1904) is the other player.
- ◆ Drove in his 100th run on 9/13 at California to become the sixth player to drive in 100 runs in each of his first five full seasons ... Joe DiMaggio (1936-42), Chuck Klein (1929-33), Al Rosen (1950-54), Hal Trosky (1934-39) and Al Simmons (1924-34) are the others to accomplish the feat.
- ◆ His .193 walk average ranks fourth in major-league history, his .450 career on-base percentage is fifth and his .593 slugging percentage is sixth.

Thomas In White Sox History

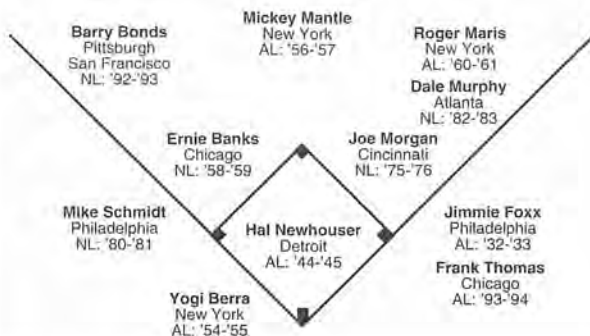

- ◆ His 40 home runs and 136 walks were the second-highest totals in club history ... Thomas holds the record with 41 home runs in 1993 and 138 walks in 1991.
- ◆ Became the second-fastest player in White Sox history to hit 20 (58 games), 25 (76 games) and 30 home runs (95 games) ... Thomas in 1994 is the only player to reach each of those milestones in fewer games.

HISTORY

HISTORY

Shortstop Ozzie Guillen made his 11th consecutive Opening Day start in 1995, the second-longest streak among active league shortstops.

SIGNIFICANT DATES

November 20, 1893	At a meeting held in the Grand Hotel Indianapolis, the Western League is formally organized. Charles Comiskey nominates Ban Johnson for president of the league. The Sioux City franchise is awarded to a local businessman named H. H. Drale. A year later Comiskey's contract with the Cincinnati Redlegs expires. At the behest of Ban Johnson, Charles Comiskey purchases the Sioux City team and moves it to St. Paul.
October 11, 1899	The American League is christened in Chicago, amid rumors that the St. Paul club will transfer to the south side.
March 21, 1900	An agreement is signed which lands the St. Paul Saints in Chicago.
April 2, 1900	Playing as the Chicago team for the first time, the White Stockings defeat the University of Illinois, 10-9, in Champaign. Roy Patterson is the victor.
April 21, 1900	The Chicago White Sox play their first game in a small wooden ballpark located at 39th and Princeton. The Sox lose to Milwaukee, 5-4.
April 22, 1900	The Sox defeat the Brewers, 5-3, behind Roger Denzer for the club's first victory.
September 12, 1900	The White Sox clinch the 1900 pennant by defeating the Cleveland Blues, 12-4, in Chicago.
January 28, 1901	Meeting in closed door sessions in Chicago, the American League drafts a 140-game schedule and declares itself to be a second Major League.
April 24, 1901	The first "official" American League game is played in Chicago with Roy Patterson defeating Cleveland, 8-2.
September 21, 1901	Even though they lose in Philadelphia, the White Sox capture their second consecutive American League pennant. For the season they draw 354,350 fans to the tiny South Side grounds, nearly 150,000 more than their crosstown rivals. Chicago plays a team of AL All-Stars led by Nap Lajoie in the postseason "All-American Series." The Sox split the games.
September 20, 1902	Nixey Callahan fires the first Sox no-hitter against the Detroit Tigers.
June 9, 1903	The White Sox are incorporated under Illinois law with $5,000 capital.
May 12, 1904	Ed Walsh makes his major-league debut in Philadelphia.
June 5, 1904	Fielder Jones replaces Nixey Callahan as manager.
October 2, 1904	Doc White's streak of 45 consecutive scoreless innings is snapped by the New York Highlanders in Chicago.
August 23, 1906	The White Sox win their 19th successive game, downing the Washington Senators, 4-1, behind pitcher Roy Patterson.
October 14, 1906	The Sox claim the only all-Chicago World Series, defeating the Cubs, 8-3, in the finale to win four of the six meetings.
October 5, 1908	Ed Walsh wins his 40th game of the season, downing Detroit, 6-1. His win total remains a Chicago single-season record.
January 19, 1909	Charles Comiskey purchases a tract of land near the corner of 35th and Shields from Roxanna Bowen, a descendant of former Chicago Mayor John Wentworth. Later that year, architect Zachary Taylor Davis is commissioned to design a spacious ballpark for the White Sox on the site.
October 6, 1909	Davis submits his proposed ballpark design to Comiskey for approval.
March 17, 1910	The cornerstone of Comiskey Park is laid on St. Patrick's Day.
June 27, 1910	The Sox play for the last time at the 39th St. Grounds, losing to Cleveland, 7-2.
July 1, 1910	Comiskey Park opens to a packed house but the Sox lose to St. Louis, 2-0.
August 11, 1912	Hall-of-Fame catcher Ray Schalk makes his debut, collecting one single in three at-bats against Philadelphia.

White Sox Parks

New Comiskey Park: The new Comiskey Park opened on April 18, 1991, three years after the Illinois General Assembly passed legislation to build the park directly across the street from old Comiskey Park. A ground-breaking ceremony was held on May 7, 1989, with Mayor Richard M. Daley and Governor James Thompson in attendance. The new park features an exploding scoreboard, an old-time facade complete with arches and over 40,000 unobstructed-view seats. New Comiskey Park attracted a club-record 2,934,154 fans in its first year.

Old Comiskey Park: After nine years in the South Side Grounds, Charles Comiskey started construction on his new "Baseball Palace of the World" at the corner of 35th Street and Shields Avenue. White Sox Park opened on July 1, 1910, but soon became known as Comiskey Park. The new park was designed by architect Zachary Taylor Davis with help from Comiskey and pitcher Ed Walsh. Comiskey Park featured spacious dimensions (362 feet down each line and 420 feet to straight-away center field). Before the 1927 season, the park was enclosed by a double-decked outfield grandstand. On August 14, 1939, the first night game in Chicago was played at Comiskey Park, with the Sox defeating the St. Louis Browns, 5-2. The first large center field scoreboard was built in 1950 and lasted until replaced by Bill Veeck's exploding version in 1960. In 1982, a new scoreboard, complete with color video board, was constructed along with new Golden Box seats, dugouts and a level of luxury sky suites. The White Sox played their final campaign at old Comiskey Park in 1990. The festive final weekend of the old stadium was capped by a 2-1 Sox victory over the Seattle Mariners in the final game on September 30, 1990.

39th Street Grounds: The first home of the Chicago White Sox was located at 39th Street and Princeton, four blocks south of the present Comiskey Park. The 39th Street Grounds served as the playing field of the Chicago Wanderers cricket team during the 1893 World's Fair. Charles Comiskey built a wooden grandstand on the site in 1900. The capacity of the tiny grandstand never exceeded 7,500. It served as the home of the White Sox until June 27, 1910 when the club vacated the park for Comiskey Park at 35th Street and Shields. The grounds were leased to John Schorling, a South Side saloon keeper who owned the American Giants Negro League team. The park served as the home of Chicago's Negro League teams until the park was demolished in the late 1940s to make way for a public housing project.

White Sox Turnaround

The White Sox 1990 record of 94-68 (after finishing 69-92 in 1989) was the largest one-year turnaround in club history, eclipsing the 1970-71 revival when the Sox improved from 56-106 to 79-83.

Batting .300 With 25 Home Runs

Frank Thomas is just the second player in White Sox history to bat over .300 and hit 25-plus home runs multiple times in his career. Thomas has accomplished the feat four times: in 1991 (.318, 32), 1993 (.317, 41), 1994 (.353, 38) and again in 1995 (.308, 40). Dick Allen also achieved those levels twice (1972 and 1974). Harold Baines (1984) and Zeke Bonura (1934) each accomplished it once in their careers.

Triple Plays

The last triple play turned by the White Sox came on June 15, 1986 at Seattle. With Neil Allen pitching, Alvin Davis walked to lead off the second inning. Jim Presley's ground ball to Greg Walker was fumbled for an error as Davis went to third. Designated hitter Ken Phelps hit a fly ball to right fielder Jerry Hairston. Hairston fired to catcher Carlton Fisk, who tagged Davis out at the plate. Fisk threw to second baseman Julio Cruz at second, nailing Presley who was trying to advance on the play.

10 Million Fans

The Chicago White Sox drew their 10 millionth fan to new Comiskey Park on May 8, 1995 to see a 4-2 victory over the Minnesota Twins. The club reached the mark early in the ballpark's fifth season, compared to the 17 seasons it took to reach 10 million at old Comiskey Park (1910-26). In major league baseball history, only Baltimore's Oriole Park at Camden Yards, Toronto's SkyDome and Los Angeles' Dodger Stadium reached 10 million faster.

Broadcasts

For the seventh consecutive season, White Sox games will be televised on WGN-TV and SportsChannel, while a new flagship station, WMVP-AM Sports Radio 1000, takes over radio coverage of the Sox.

WGN-TV will televise 56 White Sox regular-season contests in 1996, including the home opener at Comiskey Park on April 9 vs. Texas (1:05 p.m.). SportsChannel will carry 96 games, with its first telecast coming from Seattle on April 3 (5:35 p.m.). Including its Opening Day broadcast, ESPN will carry four Sox games during the season, the other three coming on May 19 at Detroit, June 30 vs. Cleveland and August 4 at Texas.

Baseball's newest broadcast partner, FOX Network (WFLD, Channel 32), is scheduled to televise five Sox games, beginning with the contest on June 8 at Baltimore, as part of its Saturday afternoon "Game of the Week" coverage. Fox also will carry games on June 22 vs. Seattle, July 6 at Cleveland, July 27 vs. Texas and September 14 at Boston.

The 1996 All-Star Game from Philadelphia's Veterans Stadium will be televised by NBC (WMAQ, Channel 5). FOX will carry the 1996 World Series.

WMVP-AM Sports Radio 1000 begins its first season as the White Sox flagship station in 1996, marking the first time since the 1960s that one Chicago radio station has held broadcast rights for three teams (White Sox, Bulls and Blackhawks). This is the first season of a five-year contract (plus a five-year option) that has Sox games broadcast on the 24-hour all-sports station. In addition to WMVP, WIND Radio (560 AM) also will broadcast all 162 Sox games in 1996, marking the third successive season the entire Sox schedule will be carried in Spanish.

MEDIA SERVICES

Admission: Enter Comiskey Park at Gate 4 (Administrative Offices). Television crews that park in the back of the ballpark enter through the loading dock. A Major League Baseball Working Pass, BBWAA card or Chicago White Sox credential is necessary for admittance. Gate 4 and the clubhouses will be opened to the media 3 1/2 hours prior to game time.

Broadcast Booths: Take the elevator to Level 2, proceed to the Press Box, and take the stairs to the broadcast booths. There are seven broadcast booths: Booth 1 (Reserved), Booth 2 (Home TV), Booth 3 (Visiting TV), Booth 4 (Home Radio), Booth 5 (Visiting Radio), Booth 6 (Hispanic Radio), Booth 7 (Reserved).

Clubhouses: Credentials must indicate clubhouse access. Enter at Gate 4 and proceed to the service tunnel. As you reach the service tunnel, the White Sox clubhouse (third base side) is to the left and the visitors' clubhouse (first base side) is to the right. The White Sox clubhouse will be closed to the media 45 minutes prior to the game and between games of a doubleheader. Following the game, the White Sox clubhouse will be opened to the media no later than 10 minutes after the last out. The trainer's room, weight room, and players' lounge will be closed to the media at all times.

Credentials: Proper credentials must be displayed at all times. Credentials will be issued only to legitimate newsgathering agencies that have contacted the Public Relations Department at least 24 hours in advance. Media Will Call is located at Gate 4, Window 10, which opens two hours prior to game time.

Dark Rooms: Enter at Gate 4 and proceed to the service tunnel. As you reach the service tunnel, the dark rooms are to the right beyond the entrance to the Umpires' Clubhouse.

Elevators: Two elevators are located to the right after entrance at Gate 4. Proper credentials will be necessary for access to the elevators. Take either elevator to Level 2 for the Press Box, Level 3 for the Bards Room (dining room), or Level 5 for the Upper Photo Boxes (Sections 524 and 540).

Field: Credentials must indicate field access. The field and dugouts must be cleared following pre-game batting practice and infield drills. Postgame live shots can be done from the warning track areas immediately in front of the first and third base photo boxes. However, postgame interviews will not be allowed in or near the dugouts, without special permission, until 10 minutes after the last out.

Parking: Limited parking for the media is available in Lots C and G, as designated on the parking pass.

Photo Areas: Enter at Gate 4 and proceed to the service tunnel. As you reach the service tunnel, the third base photo box is to the left and the first base photo box is to the right. Upper photo boxes are also available near Sections 524 and 540. Still photographers are not allowed in the tunnel behind home plate or in the clubhouses, without special permission.

Press Box: Take the elevator to Level 2. The Press Box contains 120 seats, a work room, telephones for credit card calls and a dining area. No food or drink may be taken from the Press Box.

Television Minicam Crews: WBBM (2), WMAQ (5), WLS (7), WGN (9).

WFLD (32), ChicagoLand Television and SportsChannel will be allowed to park two vehicles each at the rear of the ballpark near the Players' Lot (corner of 35th Street and Wentworth Avenue). Crews parking in this area enter the stadium with their equipment via the loading dock. Access to the field is via the first and third base photo boxes off the service tunnel. Access to the photo boxes on the upper concourse is via the freight elevator in the left field corner of the stadium.

Pre-game interviews must be done on the field. No game action can be shown during a live shot. Use of lights in the stadium during the game is prohibited. Proper credentials will be necessary for access to the clubhouses. Following the game, interviews will not be allowed in or near the dugouts, without special permission, until 10 minutes after the last out.
